References

Bolton, R & Bolton, G. (2018). Listen up or Lose out. Amacom

Community Care (2010, March 18). Bullying among social work professionals. www.communitycare.co.uk/2010/03/18/bullying-among-social-work-professionals/

Community Care (2014, October 1). Six out of 10 social workers would not recommend their workplace. www.communitycare.co.uk/2014/10/01/six-10-social-workers-recommend-workplace

Community Care (2017, December 6). Serious success reviews: How a council is using positive outcomes to reflect on social work practice. www.communitycare.co.uk/2017/12/06/serious-success-reviews-council-using-positive-outcomes-reflect-social-work-practice/

Community Care (2019a, February 21). Hotdesking not compatible with social work, 86% of social workers say. www.communitycare.co.uk/2019/02/21/hotdesking-compatible-social-work-86-social-workers-say/

Community Care (2019b, January 30). Social workers moving away from agency and part-time work. www.communitycare.co.uk/2019/01/30/social-workers-moving-away-agency-part-time-work/

McFadden, P. (2015). Measuring burnout among UK social workers: A Community Care study. Queen’s University Belfast. www.qub.ac.uk/sites/media/Media,514081,en.pdf

Mindful.org (2014, October 8). What is mindfulness? www.mindful.org/what-is-mindfulness/

Murray, K. (2015, December 8). ‘Social workers save lives. We are not child-snatchers or do-gooders.’ The Guardian.

www.iosh.com/media/3722/mhfa-at-work-full-report.pdf

www.bmjopen.bmj.com/content/7/1/e014326

www.learn.sssc.uk.com/course/view2770.html?id=67

